Fire Chief Urges New Legislation to Supply Funds.

WANTS FIFTY MORE MEN

Members of Department Forced to Work Overtime Because of Lack of Number.

The enactment by Congress of legisla-tion placing the firemen's pension fund on in adequate basis is urged in the annua report of Fire Chief Frank J. Wagner, commissioners. The report also urger the appropriation of a sufficient sum to increase the fire-fighting force by fifty

"With the present force at the com-mand of the fire department," says Chief Wagner, "it is necessary, in or-der to secure efficiency in fire fighting, for the officers and members to remain continuously on duty, with the excep-tion of one day's leave of absence every ifth day, and even this day's leave must refused in the event of sickness in colving two or more members of any one company. The domestic sacrifices ren-fered necessary by this confinement are only too evident, and, in my opinion, the nembers of the department should be accorded more relief from such confinemen and their arduous duties."

Hardship on Pensioners

Concerning the inadequacy of the pen-tion fund, the report says: "The inadequacy has again been dem instrated during the year, and I regret o have to mention that the retired mem bers of this department, and the widows, firemen, have during the year been com Leave of absence for two months, to take effect upon his arrival in the United States, is granted First Lieut. Why This Is the Greatest Furniture Event in Washington

It is not an ordinary so-called sale—but a yearly event which we have held in 35 preceding years, and proved to the public by deedsnot words—the big values offered.

Our entire $100,000 stock is included, both old and BRAND-NEW STOCK—offering a tremendous selection from a stock that occupies nine floors in one building and two floors in another, and last but not least, every piece of furniture we carry is of the very highest quality-no other kind enters the house- and the reductions from regular prices are extraordinarily big.

Our Liberal Credit System Is at Your Disposal Just the Same As If You Paid Full Prices

This credit service is a part of the Lansburgh Furniture Co.'s very liberal policy, and it is something seldom offered in sales of this character. We will arrange convenient payments to suit you even at these greatly reduced prices, and furthermore, our guarantee is back of every article sold at any time. Extra salesmen to serve you. Our large auto truck is ready to make prompt deliveries.
